But Adams Keeps Giants From Asserting Themselves With Bat.

Beaten by the Pittsburgs yesterday the Giants had their lead cut to seven games as the Philadelphias shut out the Cardinals. The Chicago Cubs again crushed the Dodgers and still hold third place by a small margin. The Cincinnati Reds trimmed the Boston Braves and drew further away from the tail end.

To-day's Schedule.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 5 .- Rube Marquard didnt carry over the effectiveness which he showed in the closing inning and a fraction of yesterday's ball game. The Pirates joited him from the start to-day and his winning streak was shattered. Five to one was the score by which the Five to one was the score by which the smoky citizens heaped defeat on the Giants to-day, Marquard's sequence of victories being nine games long.

Marquard was responsible for afl of the Pittsburg runs, for in addition to allowing the Pirates to collect three hits from his allurements in the third inning he made a large and costly error on a sacrifice bunt the nabbing of which would have made a double play easy, and he walked a batter who scored. He also made a wild pitch in the first inning, without which the Pirates wouldn't have scored in the first inning.

ored in the first inning.

Very different from Marquard's off day was the workmanlike and effective pitch-ing of Adams. He had nice speed with a ing of Adams. He had nice speed with a change of pace and a sharp drop and the Giants hit him sparingly. He was well supported, though the Pirates had no difficult chances in the field. Adams, effective though he was, was prodded for three searing liners by the Giants which were outs instead of hits because they have the details to fielders. Burns. hummed straight to fielders. Burns, Shafer and A. Wilson were the unfortunates who tore off the smothered liners. After Fromme went in the Pirates were as shy with the bat as the Giants, but that was a matter of small concern to them, inasmuch as they were five runs to the good and the Giants couldn't make any headway in the scoring line. The defeat of the visitors wasn't long in making, the game going along with ad-mirable speed and consuming only an hour and thirty-five minutes. Maximilian Carey, who was the heavy Maximilian Carey, who was the heavy ordnance of the day, chopped a two bagger down the left foul line in the first inning, hitting the first ball pitched. Marquard slammed the ball into the ground and Maximus took third. He scored on Viox's fly to Snodgrass, and as Wagner fouled out feebly Carey wouldn't have scored but for the wild pitch.

The Giants showed no batting zest until Herzog opened the second with a two bagger, and not much after that. The ensuing batters backed up Herzog so luke-ensuing batters backed up Herzog so lukewarmly that he stayed at second all through the inning, though it seemed that he could have taken third on Merkle's fly to Kommers. Adams struck out Murray and Vlox threw out Snodgrass. That was a sample of how the Giants got together with the mace.

Gawge Gibson fired the shot on Fort Marquard which was followed by the downfall of that citadel. He singled to right in the third. Adams bunted and the ball trickled through the Rube's hands in his hurry to pick it up and throw to second. Fletcher had gone to cover second and be the pivot for the double play which was there begging to be made, but Gibson reached the midway station and Adams reached first.

Byrne drew four balls and the bases were filled with nobody out. Carey sloughed another hit to left and brought however, were as huiring as hefore. in one from the crowded tenements, which owever, were as bulging as before. Viox and Marquard was taken from the box. The Rube took his medicine calmly when a few unsportsmanlike yells of derision greeted him as he retired.

greeted him as he retired.

Fromme stopped the hitting. Wagner sacrificed and Miller brought Carey home with a fly to Snodgrass. Wagner couldn't hit, but his agile fielding interfered with New York's progress. Murray singled with one out in the fifth, but Honus took Snodgrass's grounder toward third and Snodgrass's grounder toward third and picked Murray off with a throw to Byrne. A. Wilson's hot liner to Wagner ended

Burns sent a shricking liner to Wagner in the sixth and Shafer spun one to Miller. After Fletcher had opened the seventh with a single Wagner surfocated Herzog's grounder and converted it into a double

The Giants scored in the ninth on Shafer's triple and Fletcher's out at first, the Pirate infield playing back. However, Herzog's single would have batted Shafer in and prevented a shutout. This was the only time the Giants bunched hits. It was too late. The boat had sailed. The

This Double Play

A DOUBLE play not often seen at the Polo Grounds yesterday. Ty Cobb began the session with a clean two bagger. Veach raised a short fly in left field and as Cobb thought Cree would catch the ball he hesitated half way to third base. The leather dropped safely and Cobb ran to third. Cree whipped the ball to Hartzell, who tagged Veach as he slid for the middle bag. Hartzell saw Cobb taking too much ground off third and with a quick throw to Midkiff he caught the $12,500 star before the latter could scramble

ALEXANDER BLANKS CARDINALS.

Phillies Win, 1 to 0, Thanks to Cravath's Long Hit.

St. Louis, Aug. 5.—The Phillies took the Cardinals into camp this afternoon for the third game in a row. The final score was 1 to 0. All the way through it was a pitchers' battle between Sallee and Alexander, with the visitor holding the edge as regards number of hits he permitted. In the second inning Cravath tripled and Luderus singled. Pringing tripled and Luderus singled, bringing Cravath home for the only tally. Cravath's smash to right went into the wire netting in front of the right field pavilion. Cather jumped and reached aip eight feet to pull the ball out of the screen and held Cravath at third. The Phillies protested that the smash should be counted a home run, but Umpire Klem overruled them. The score:

Warning for Major Leagues. Warning for Major Leagues.

As the drafting season approaches major league clubs are warned by the National Commission that the rule restricting the number of players to whose services a club may hold title at any time to thirty-five will be enforced to the letter. A club that has this number of men under contract or includes players purchased or :ccalled under optional agreements, will not be allowed to file drafts. If a club holds title to less than thirty-five players on the opening day of the draft period the excess number obtained through this medium must be disposed of prior to the filing of the reserve list on October 1.

There was no more scoring until the Tigers' fifth, when with one down, Moriarty got a life on Peck's fumble, reached second on Peck's low throw of Dubuc's roller, took third on Bush's infield out and then stole home in a cloud of dust.

Dubuc was a pussle until the New Yorks' sixth. Hartsell opened it with a scratch and after the next two men had been settled Cree received a pass and Midkiff's base hit to centre sent Hartsell home. Sweeney also walked, but Caldwell left all three when he grounded to Gainer.

BIG CHIEF MEYERS, the Giants' Catcher, with his right hand heavily bandaged, occupied a box in the upper tier of the Brush Stadium yesterday. Meyers was injured in Pittsburg on Monday and McGraw sent him home to rest. The Indian smoked a black cigar and watched the struggle between the Tigers and Chancemen with evident interest until the score was 8 to 2 at the end of the third inning. Then Meyers, who doesn't have many days off, thought of another engagement and left the scene of carnage. It will be nearly ten days or perhaps two weeks

DODGERS GET ED. REULBACH. Bill Dablen Trades Stack for the

Chicago Cubs' Veteran Pitcher. Manager Dahlen of the Brooklyns traded Pitcher Ed Stack to the Cubs yesterday Pitcher Ed Stack to the Cubs yesteray for Ed Reulbach, the veteran boxman. Oddly enough the Cubs had Stack four years ago, but allowed him to go to the Philadelphias, who sent him to Brooklyn in exchange for Doc Scanian. Stack has been of no more value to the Dodgers than Reulbach has been to the Cubs, so than Reulbach has been to the Cubs, s that the trade is practically even up. With the exception of Overall, Reulback is the last of the famous pitchers who on pennants for the Cubs under Fran Chance's leadership. He was discover-by the late Frank G. Selee when the latt managed the Chicago team. Last sprin managed the Chicago team. Last spring Charles Webb Murphy asked for waivers on Reulbach because he said that the blg twirler was indifferent in his work. Butlater the request was withdrawn. Reulbach said in Chicago yesterday that he was glad to get away from Evers. He may pitch for the Dodgers against his old team to-day. team to-day. Cook Reports to Manager Chance.

Right Fielder Cook of the Austin, Texas League Club, reported to Manager Chance at the Polo Grounds yesterday. Cook, who seems to be a fast runner, made numerous excellent catches in practice and also hit the ball hard. First Baseman Williams, from Galveston, also showed up well in fielding and with the war club. These men will get into the game in a day or two. Chance has turned Bitcher Coopers of Helena over to the Pitcher Cooney of Helena over to the Jersey City team for a thorough trial. The P. L. had nothing to say anent the report that he might try out his old Cub standby, Artie Hofman, now playing well Pirates Get Mike Mitchell. The Cubs have sold Outfielder Mike Mitchell to the Pirates for the walver price. Mitchell figured in the big Cincinnati-Chicago trade last winter by which the Reds secured Joe Tinker. The Cubs still retain Corriden, Phelan and Humphries, whom they took from Porkville as part of the famous transaction. Mitchell did not bat up to the standard required by Evers.

Athletes to Come

GERMANY and England both will send teams to the athletic meetings of the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915 despite the refusal of their governments to exhibit, according to a statement of Secretary James E. Sullivan of the A. A. U. yesterday just before he sailed for Europe. Sullivan declares Germany will send probably more men than any other foreign country. He denied that the official attitude of Germany would have any effect on America's sending a representative team to Berlin in 1916.

Down Royals at Home in Thirteen Innings by 6 to 5.

Jersey City inaugurated another campaign at home with a victory over Montreal in a thirteen inning battle this afternoon. The score was 6 to 5. The Skeeters showed up strong at the bat and with the exception of Eschen's work at short were formidable in the field. With Montreal two runs ahead in the seventh and Shaw on third Perry tied the game up for Jersey City with a homer. In the thirteenth Calhoun singled, and Breen's safety to left and Demmitt's wild throw to third sent him home with the winning

PETER VOLO TROTS TO WORLD'S MARK

Sets Record for Two-Year-Old Stallions at 2:09—Several Watches Say 2:08 1-4.

ETAWA WINS BIG PURSE

Blind Trotter Takes Horseman Futurity in Best Time for Season of Year.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Aug. 5.—With a new world's record for two-year-old stallion trotters and the fastest race among three-year-olds at this time of the year, the second day of the Grand Circuit meeting here more than made up for the short-comings of the first.

The new record was made by Peter Volo, which raced in 2:09 in the Horseman Futurity, although several watches made it 2:08 1-4. The old record was 2:09 1-2, held by Justice Brooke.

Murphy also made a record for himself as he has driven both the two-year-old colt and filly to their marks. Before the race Murphy remarked that he regards Peter Volo as being faster than was Native Belle, holder of the championship for the age.

Etawah, the blind three-year-old trotter, owned by Frank G. Jones, won the senior division of the Horseman Futurity without much trouble. He made the pace at all times and won the greatest amount that has gone with a single victory this season. As Geers did not win a heat last week, this helped some.

Dillon Axworthy, the best two-year-old. last season, was the contender, but he could not step up to Etawah, whose time is the best made in a race by a three-year-old at this season of the year. Barbara Overton raced well, and Hollyrood Kate

Overton raced well, and Hollyrood Kate finished strong in the third heat.

The 2:19 trot proved a corking good race, Tommy Horn finally beating the favorite, Marigold. The three-year-old pace was devoid of feature, Tillie Tipton winning as she pleased.

Seven responded in the three-year-old trotting division of the Horseman Futurity, Etawah being favorite at $50, Dillon'Axworthy, $30, and the field $10. McDonald had the mount on the Detroit lon Axwortny, $30, and the field $10. Me Donald had the mount on the Detroi colt, Blackburn Watts, which had the pole, and Dodge drove his own filly, Holly rood Kate. Etawah won $7,500 in mones billon Axworthy $500, Barbara Overton $600 and Hollyrood Kate $400. In addi-tion Frank G. Jones received the hand-some cup and the nominator of the dam gets $200. Only two came out in the pacing division

Only two came out in the pacing division of the Horseman Futurity. Tille Tipton had the pole and Homer Baughman was lapped on her, but in the stretch the filly drew away and won easily in six seconds slower time than she raced last week. Tillie Tipton won the second and third heats as easily and received $1,500 for the vice tory. Homer Baughman got $456. The summaries:
